MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION

THE REPORT welcomes manuscripts of OHIO material for proposed publication. All manuscripts should be sent to:

THE EDITOR, 4649 YARMOUTH LANE, YOUNGSTOWN, OH 44512

The manuscript should be typed on standard-sized paper and have the author's name on each page; the pages should be numbered. A cover letter, giving permission from the author to publish the material in THE REPORT, should accompany the manuscript. Restrictions of any kind may not be placed on material to be published.

When sending photocopies of original old manuscripts, such as handwritten Bible records, please send a typed transcript for us to work from; it is usually much clearer on the original in your possession than on a photocopy.

The types of records requested for publication include Bible records, Ohio county court records (marriages, deed abstracts, naturalizations, will abstracts or other), Ohio cemetery inscriptions (not alphabetized), "How-To" articles (the use of special collections, holdings of a particular repository, etc.), abstracts from Ohio newspapers, brief family genealogies with Ohio connections (fully documented) and other material of an unusual but useful nature. The Editor makes the final decision on material to be published. Following publication, all original material is placed in the Ohio Genealogical Society Library in Mansfield. Every effort is made to present authentic material, but the Ohio Genealogical Society cannot be responsible for the accuracy or the publishing rights of the material furnished by contributors. All material is published with the permission of the contributor.

SOME CITY OF CLEVELAND DEATH RECORDS, JAN-FEB 1856

Lenore Maxa, 2849 Northglen Rd., Westlake OH 44145

Records for deaths in Cuyahoga County begin with July 1868 and include deaths in the wards of the City of Cleveland as well as the surrounding townships. These records have been microfilmed by the LDS Church.

The City of Cleveland death records began at a much earlier date and were maintained after 1868 even though records were also being kept at the county level. Entries for individuals can often be found in both City and County records. The City records have not been filmed[1], and photocopying is not permitted.[2]

Early City records are grouped by individual cemetery and duplicate the sexton's records. The following entries for Woodland Cemetery and "Woodland Catholic" were copied from a volume labelled "Record of Deaths / Health Department / City of Cleveland, 1853-65." The "65" is crossed off and "73" is written in. Woodland Cemetery entries end on page 206 with July 31, 1873. On page 207 this note appears: "The following is the record of Burials in the Catholic Cemetery - Sts. John and Joseph on Woodland Ave. up to August 1st, 1873." However, pages 208 through 300 contain entries from January 1, 1856 through only July 13, 1865.[3] Beginning August 1, 1873, entries are chronological and include burials in several of the cemeteries in the city. The cemetery name is noted in a special column.

Woodland Cemetery consists of 60 acres, with the first burial in 1853.[4] The 15-acre St. Joseph Cemetery was purchased in 1849 and the first burial was in 1850.[5] A third Catholic cemetery, St. John's, was established on 13 acres purchased in 1855. The first burial was in 1858.[6] St. John's and St. Joseph's often appear together in the records as "Woodland Catholic" even though they are geographically separate.[7] St. John's, now at 7000 Woodland, is on the south side of Woodland Avenue, across from the non-sectarian Woodland Cemetery; St. Joseph's is farther east on Woodland at the SE corner of East 79th Street.

Pages 208-209 of burials in the "Catholic Cemetery"

The column headings are: No., date, name, age, color, sex, birthplace, cause of death, residence & cemetery. WC is used for Woodland Catholic.

FOOTNOTES

1. Printed and microfilmed copies of Erie Street burials are available. This cemetery was established in 1808, but the first recorded burial extant was in 1817. (W. Payne, Cleveland Illustrated. Cleveland, Fairbanks, Benedict, 1876, p.72-73.)
2. Information requested from City of Cleveland death records is typed on a preprinted form by Cuyahoga Co. Archives staff.
3. It is unknown where the civil authority's records of St. Joseph burials are located for the period of 1850 to 1856.
4. W.G. Rose, Cleveland, the making of a city. Cleveland, World Publishing, 1950, p.262.
5. Ibid., p.216.
6. Ibid., p.271 [Therefore, the following entries are for St.Joseph burials.]
7. The two cemeteries are not listed separately in the 1865/66 Cleveland City Directory. Under the heading "Cemeteries" on page 30 are four cemeteries including "Catholic -- Kinsman, east of Woodland, P.Duffy, Sexton." The entry should probably read "Willson" rather than Woodland, since Willson, now East 55th Street, is the cross-street to the east. Kinsman was the early name of Woodland Avenue. Payne's book mentions that the "Catholic Cemetery is on the south side of Woodland Avenue, between Geneva Street [now East 69th] and Giddings Ave. [now East 71st], nearly opposite Woodland Cemetery."

MELANCHOLY DEATH. JOHN WILLIAMS, one of our oldest and most esteemed citizens, met his death on Tuesday evening last, in a most distressing manner, about seven miles from town on the old Detroit road. On descending a small hill, his horses took fright, ran off the road, and upset the wagon. In endeavoring to manage the horses, the lines broke and he was thrown out and killed, the wheels of the wagon passing over his head. A lad who saw the horses start and ran to the spot, believes the old gentleman breathed but once after he reached him. The remains of the deceased was followed to the grave by a very large concourse of relatives and friends. The whole community deeply sympathize with the aged widow who has been suddenly bereaved of her bosom companion, and with his children who have been so unexpectedly robbed of an affectionate and devoted parent. To all, it is a warning that "in the midst of life, we are in death."

COLUMBIANA COUNTY: HANOVER TOWNSHIP, 1838 TAX LIST

by Carol Willsey Bell, C.G.

This tax list for the year 1838 is taken from the tax duplicate returned to the Auditor of State, Columbus, the originals being housed at the Ohio Historical Society. Range 4 Township 15 is the designation for Hanover Township. The column R-T-S indicates Range, Township & Section numbers. Part indicates the part of the section. Acreage is shown only for parcels outside of towns. Town lots are given in a separate section of the original list, but they have been combined here to create a totally alphabetical list. The towns indicated are: HAN = Hanover; GIL = Gillford; NEW G = New Garden; DUN = Dungannon. The column showing # of lots indicates how many lots were owned (not the lot numbers). When the tax list indicated a business, such as Sawmill or Distillery, it has been included in the "town" column.

by Conard J. Roop, 1107 Basin Dr., Lockport IL 60441

The following is compiled from various historical papers about Will County, IL. It includes all names mentioned as "coming from Ohio." Many other settlers were probably from Ohio, but no mention was made in sources checked.

Custer Twp. (then Reed Twp)
RICHARD WARNER was a member of the Ohio senate before removing here, and he held other positions of trust in IL. He died in 1859.

Frankfort Twp.
The first settlements were in 1831. JOHN McGOVNEY, WILLIAM MOORE and WILLIAM RICE came from Ohio & built cabins near Mokena. During the Black Hawk War scare, they left and after the danger was over, MOORE returned to Ohio but McGOVNEY & RICE returned and became permanent settlers. MR. McGOVNEY brought his 4 sons with him: W.W., Ozias, Thomas G. and Elijah. Another son, John W., was born in the spring of 1832 and became the first white child to be born in the township. DANIEL & AMBROSE WILSON, from Ohio, came in 1834.

Homer Twp.
JOSEPH JOHNSON and two sons are supposed to be the first settlers, coming in the fall of 1830, from Ohio. The elder Johnson died in 1846. JAMES RITCHEY came from Ohio in spring 1831, bringing his family. SALMON GOODENOW, native of Ohio, remained in the township a short time, moving to the town of Jackson, where he died, a suicide, some years later. JUDGE BLACKSTONE came from Ohio and settled at Hadley's postoffice. The grove was afterward named in his honor. His brother-in-law JOHN RAY came with him. In 1834, JOHN ROSS from Ohio came.

Jackson Twp.
In May 1831, GEORGE KIRKPATRICK, his brother and JAMES HEMPHILL came from Ohio. Hemphill died in 1863.

Monee Twp.
In 1833, JOHN S. DILLY, JOHN M. CHASE, S.W.COOPER, S.W. GAINES, NICHOLAS YOUNG & AARON BONNELL came from Ohio as pioneer settlers. S.W. Cooper served in several offices and died about 1887. S.W.Gaines was an excellent citizen and lived to a ripe old age. John M. Chase was the first Justice, later selling out and returning to Ohio. Aaron Bonnell & sons lived there for several years, then sold out and removed to the southern part of the state.

HISTORY OF THE HUGUENOT EMIGRATION TO AMERICA, by Charles W. Baird. 2 vol. in one. 1991. Hard Cover. 354, 448 pp. Illus. $45.

Originally published in 1885, this book is a reprint of a standard work on the Huguenot emigration to America. It concentrates on the French Protestants' moves from France through the Netherlands and Great Britain to the Americas during the end of the 17th century up to the Revolution. This is basically a history with extensive lists of names, which are indexed. Footnotes are used heavily and serve as a guide to further information. rbh

THE PENSION LISTS OF 1792-1795 WITH OTHER REVOLUTIONARY WAR PENSION RECORDS, compiled by Murtie June Clark. 1991. Hard Cover. Indexed. 200 pp. $21.50.

This book is a compilation of the earliest Revolutionary War pension records found. These records consist primarily of claimes fro relief based on death or disability suffered during the War. Regular pension application papers at the National Archives do not begin until 1800. These lists were extracted from Congressional reports and Treasury Department claims. This should be a helpful text to those with Revolutionary research problems. rbh

THE PENSION LIST OF 1820 (U.S. WAR DEPARTMENT) Reprinted with an index by Murtie June Clark. 1991. Hard cover. 748 pp. $40.

Originally published for Congress in 1820, this book was called a "report of the names, ranks, and line of every person placed on the pension list". It was the most complete list of Revolutionary pensioners up to that time. This reprint is a big improvement over the original because it has a complete every-name index appended to it. In all, this list contains 16,000 entries, arranged by state or territory. rbh

FAMILY TREE MAKER, by Banner Blue Software, P.O. Box 7865, Fremont, CA 94537.

The computer program brings up a blank card on which you may enter the birth, death and source of data for the husband and wife. An unlimited number of children can be included for this marriage. The data from each card can be printed out. The card that I printed was 5" x 5½" wide. The data on each card can be stored, retrieved and corrected but because I only had a demo program, I was unable to try out this function. Once the data is entered into the computer for each family card, many different styles of family trees can be printed out. There are ancestor or descendant charts with up to 20 lines of information on each person. The more information, the more sheets used. The program requires an IBM or compatible computer with a minimum of 384Kb memory, DOS 2.0 or higher with two diskette drives minimum. rac

A banking crisis in 1834 caused over 1,000 individuals in Athens County to petition Congress "Against the removal of the Deposites, and in favor of the recharter of the Bank of the United States." Copies of the original Senate and House documents are included as well as an index to those who signed the petitions. As Mrs. Bowman states, this might provide clues to some males who came of age after the 1830 census, in addition to establishing residency in the county for some prior to the 1840 census. lm

The following 3 books are available from the Minnesota Genealogical Society. Order from: MGS Bookstore-RV, P.O. Box 16069, St. Paul, MN 55116-0069. All are softbound and cost $15.00 each plus postage: $1.25 for first publication, $.50 for each additional one:

OAKLAND CEMETERY RECORDS, ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA. Volume 2: 1853-31 May 1871, and Volume 3: 1 June 1871-31 May 1878. 1991. 97 pp. and 104 pp.

These titles are the second and third in the MGS series for this cemetery. The 1488 burials in volume 2 comprise approximately half of the entries in the first ledger of the cemetery. Volume 3 includes over 1500 burials from the second half of the ledger. Records of burials between 1853 and 1860 were reconstructed from other sources such as gravestones and land records. They actually appear in the cemetery's third burial ledger but are included in volume 2 of this series in order to keep the entries in chronological order. The chronological list contains entries by block, lot and location in the lot. Much information is included such as marital status and cause of death. The entries were copied verbatim. The alphabetical list is arranged by surname, then book, page and entry number. lm

BROWN CEMETERY, HENDERSON, SIBLEY COUNTY, MINNESOTA. 1991. 57 pp.

The transcription of gravestones in this cemetery was completed in 1991. Burials through the end of 1990 are included. The first, alphabetical section, also lists birth and death dates, area, lot and inscription. The second section groups burials by lot number which can help to establish relationships between individuals with different surnames. An 1874 map of the cemetery as well as the map used by current transcribers enhance this useful book. lm

GENEALOGICAL GUIDE TO CLERMONT CO., OHIO. Barbara J. McCarthy, 649 Wallace Ave., Milford, OH 45150. 1991. 70 pp. Softbound. $9.95 postpaid and Ohio residents add 55¢ tax.

The current publication is the fifth such guide to the many research possibities in Clermont County. It gives the location of every book, map, newspaper and microfilm which would be of interest to the researcher. Complete addresses are provided for all depositories. It even includes a listing of local historical societies and attractions and information on lodging in the area. The list of Clermont County newspapers is wonderfully detailed as to holdings and location. This is an extremely helpful tool for out-of-town researchers, as well as visitors to the area.lm

GERMAN TOWNS IN SLOVAKIA & UPPER HUNGARY: A GENEALOGICAL GAZETEER. 3rd ed., completely revised and expanded. By Duncan B. Gardiner, 12961 Lake Ave., Lakewood, OH 44107. 1991. $15.00 plus $2.00 postage. 113 pp. Softbound. Indexed, maps.

The first edition of this title was published in 1988. It has now been revised and enlarged in a third edition. All of the maps are new and more information on archives in Czechslovakia has been added. The expanded bibliographies cover general reading on Czechoslovakia as well as specific genealogical topics. The gazetteer includes names of towns and villages in Slovakia which had a German population of 100 or more in 1921. For several there are brief town histories. The town names are those in use between 1870-1930, and there are cross references to Hungarian, Slovak and German versions of the names. The author gives clear guidelines to help identify the emigrant's place of origin. The instructions on how to compose a letter include Czech sentences which should enable the researcher to correspond directly with record offices. This is a very useful book. lm

Here is an extremely interesting book of short stories about the author's childhood and his family. It is well illustrated with snapshots. A complete listing of Barker descendants is included, but no index. Anyone doing research on the American Indian will find this book most valuable. The history and culture of the tribe is well outlined. mew

LOUISIANA MARRIAGE CONTRACTS, VOL. 2, 1728-1769, by Alice Daly Forsyth. Published by Genealogical Research Society of New Orleans, P.O. Box 51791, New Orleans, LA 70151. Price $26.50, including postage/handling. Softbound. 178 pp.

These marriage contracts are translated from the French records of the 18th century now on deposit in the Louisiana Historical Center Library in New Orleans. There are very few records from the first part of this period, but the ten year period from 1759 to 1769 is very well covered in both the French and Spanish areas. The contracts are most valuable because they contain not only the names of the parties being married but also the parents names and in many cases the occupations of the parents and their residences. Gifts and properties are also listed in many cases. This volume is well-indexed. mew

Another set found in Pickens county was red-haired." From these beginnings are traced several generations of Mays. A separate page is given for many, along with their descendants. Marriage and death notices are included. Wills are listed where available. This is a most detailed study. Copies are included of property transactions. There are obituaries, maps and diagrams. Many photos, a good bibliography, and an excellent index are included. mew

This book contains a good description of the county and its importance during the Revolutionary War years. A complete listing of battles, pension laws, and bounty lands helps to orient the reader to the time period which is discussed in this book. A complete listing of veterans is included. Many of the veterans are in the biographical section. Included are diagrams, maps and a cross index. mew

OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, HOLLY TOWNSHIP CEMETERIES, published by the Oakland Co. Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 1094, Birmingham, MI 48012. Member price, $15.00; Non-member price, $18.00. Postage/handling, $1.50. Michigan residents add 4% tax. Softbound. Every name index. 230 pp.

This book contains tombstone readings from the three known cemeteries in Holly Township: Oak Hill, Lakeside, and Mitchell. Many Genesee County residents are listed. Diagrams of the cemeteries are included so that locations of graves are simplified. Several pages of photographs are included and thirty pages of obituaries are most interesting. Good indexing job! mew

This book is the fourth in a series of stories and records of Wilcox County, Alabama. Election records, marriages from 1835 and 1836, business licenses from 1839 and land office records from 1823-1826 are included. This may be too limited a work for most researchers, but for those with ancestors in Wilcox County, it is vital, especially if used with the first three volumes. mew

Box 2021, Wapakoneta, OH 45895-0521. Price, $20.00, plus $3.00 shipping/handling. Includes both books. Softbound.

A map of the county locates all cemeteries. The first volume contains Duchouquet Township and lists all burials in Greenlawn Cemetery. There is also a list of veterans. Burials are given alphabetically with information about place of birth, late residence, dates of birth and death, age, lot and section numbers. Eighteen cemeteries are included in the second volume. ASSOCIATE PRESBYTERIAN CONGREGATION OF ONTARIO, OHIO, SESSION BOOK 1, 1849-1879; SESSION BOOK 2, 1881-1919. Transcribed by Howard T. & Jane (Weaver) Pyle and Frederick Richard Weaver. Available from F. Richard Weaver, 1505 Brookpark Dr., Mansfield OH 44906 for $47.50 ppd. 1991. Hardbound. Acid Free Paper. Index. 111pp. Illus.

The church closed in 1919, the Clerk of the Session being John McCurdy Sawhill, a relative of the authors. The transcript includes minutes, communion lists, baptisms, and membership lists. If a member left the church, the date of death -- if the cause of removal -- or the city/state to which they moved, is often noted. A must for anyone with Presbyterian ancestors in Richland Co.!

CORRECTION TO REVIEW

REPORT 31:4:207

The Review of the 1880 CENSUS INDEX OF TRUMBULL COUNTY OHIO by Norman & Mary Lou Ulam, published by the Trumbull Co. Chapter OGS, contains a serious error. The book is not an every-name index to the 1880 census, and it does not contain the entire house-hold. It is an index to the HEAD OF THE FAMILY, or to anyone else WITH A DIFFERENT NAME living in a household. It also includes the page number, dwelling and family number, age, sex, nativity and township. It is available for $28.00 plus 5% Ohio tax. 1991. Hard cover. 291p. Order from the Trumbull Co. Chapter OGS, PO Box 309, Warren OH 44482-0309.
